FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Journey With a Tin Can Pilgrim honored as a “Finalist” by the 2021 Best Book Awards

Lynda Rozell's book is awarded as a "Finalist" in the "Religion: Christian Inspirational" category for the 18th Annual Best Book Awards sponsored by American Book Fest

Flemington, New Jersey, 11/16/21: Lynda Rozell is celebrated as an award winning finalist for her first novel, Journey with a Tin Can Pilgrim. Her book was awarded in the Religion: Christian inspirational category of the 2021 Best Book Awards sponsored by American Book Fest. The contest this year yielded over 2,000 entries from mainstream and independent publishers which were then narrowed down to 400 winners and finalists. Jeffery Keen, president and CEO of American Book Fest thanks and praises Lynda and the many other entries for their support of the 2021 American Book Awards.

“The 2021 results represent a phenomenal mix of books from a wide array of publishers throughout the United States. Our success begins with the enthusiastic participation of authors and publishers and continues with our distinguished panel of industry judges who bring to the table their extensive editorial, PR, marketing, and design expertise.”

About the Author

Three years ago, Lynda Rozell sold her house, quit her job, and began living on the road full-time in an Airstream travel trailer she tows with a Ram 1500 truck. She provides RV'ing tips, and shares reflections about the religious sites, shrines and parks that she visits on her travel blog, www.tincanpilgrim.com. For many years, Lynda practiced law at a private firm and at the Federal Trade Commission in Washington, DC. Since becoming a nomad, Lynda writes and gives talks, as well as providing consulting, outreach, and volunteer services wherever she roams.

About the Book

Journeys with a Tin Can Pilgrim focuses on living life fully and changing one's circumstances. It challenges the reader to abandon apathy, find spiritual and emotional renewal, and experience healing and adventure. This book is not about Lynda Rozell; it is about God and Lynda's journey to develop a close relationship with Him so she can love the people He loves whether they are family, friends, or strangers on the road. The book is available in paperback and for Kindle on Amazon, at your local bookstore, or directly from st. john's press.
